Highlights

The district continues to observe the positive effects of the four-day school week on student achievement, attendance, and morale. Students demonstrate satisfactory progress in all academic areas assessed. We are making greater use of the resources provided by the Idaho Digital Learning Academy.

With the cancellation of the ISIMS project we are renewing training using the PowerSchool system, and are preparing to introduce new financial software to improve efficiency.

Patrons have supported the schools through the passage of a supplemental and a plant facility levy. Following years of declining enrollment, we may be seeing a stabilizing in our student numbers. As we plan for potential future growth, we are bolstering our remedial programs, making use of the Plato Learning Network, and exploring new opportunities for both our accelerated students and our Professional-Technical curriculum.

Did Challis Jt District make Adequate yearly progress for 2004-05? No

Percent of the 41 targets that Challis Jt District made: 95.12%

The goal in our nation is for all students in grades 3 through 8 and 10 to be proficient in reading and math by the spring of 2014. Idaho uses the Idaho Standards Achievement Test (ISAT) and the Idaho Alternate Assessment (IAA) to measure proficiency. This report shows the percentage of students who met state goals for proficiency in reading and math.
